Living Stone Design + Build Partners with House Beautiful Magazine for 7th Annual Whole Home

Asheville, NC — 8/28/2024 — Living Stone Design + Build, a member of the Sullivan Family of Companies, announces its collaboration with House Beautiful Magazine for the 2024 Whole Home project. This project is House Beautiful's inaugural vacation home, located in the mountains of Asheville, North Carolina, and will be highlighted in the magazine's upcoming November/December Renovation Issue.

With nearly 30 years of experience in luxury custom home building, Living Stone Design + Build is known for its commitment to quality and sustainability. The company was recently recognized as the Custom Home Builder of the Year 2023 by the National Association of Home Builders (NAHB), underscoring its innovation in custom home construction.

"Partnering with House Beautiful is a dream come true for our team," says Sean Sullivan of Living Stone Design + Build. "We're passionate about building happier, healthier homes and lives for our clients, and we're excited to have the opportunity to raise the bar for luxury, sustainable living on a national stage."

The home, located in the Sprout community will focus on energy efficiency and green design, incorporating biophilic elements that complement North Carolina's mountain scenery. Laura Sullivan of ID.ology Interiors & Design will be a featured designer, reflecting the integrated approach of the Sullivan Family of Companies.

This collaboration with House Beautiful and Living Stone Design + Build aligns with their shared dedication to healthier living environments, as demonstrated by House Beautiful's partnership with Wellness Within Your Walls, promoting toxin-free home environments. The completed home will be featured on HouseBeautiful.com and in the November/December 2024 Renovation Issue, available November 26.
